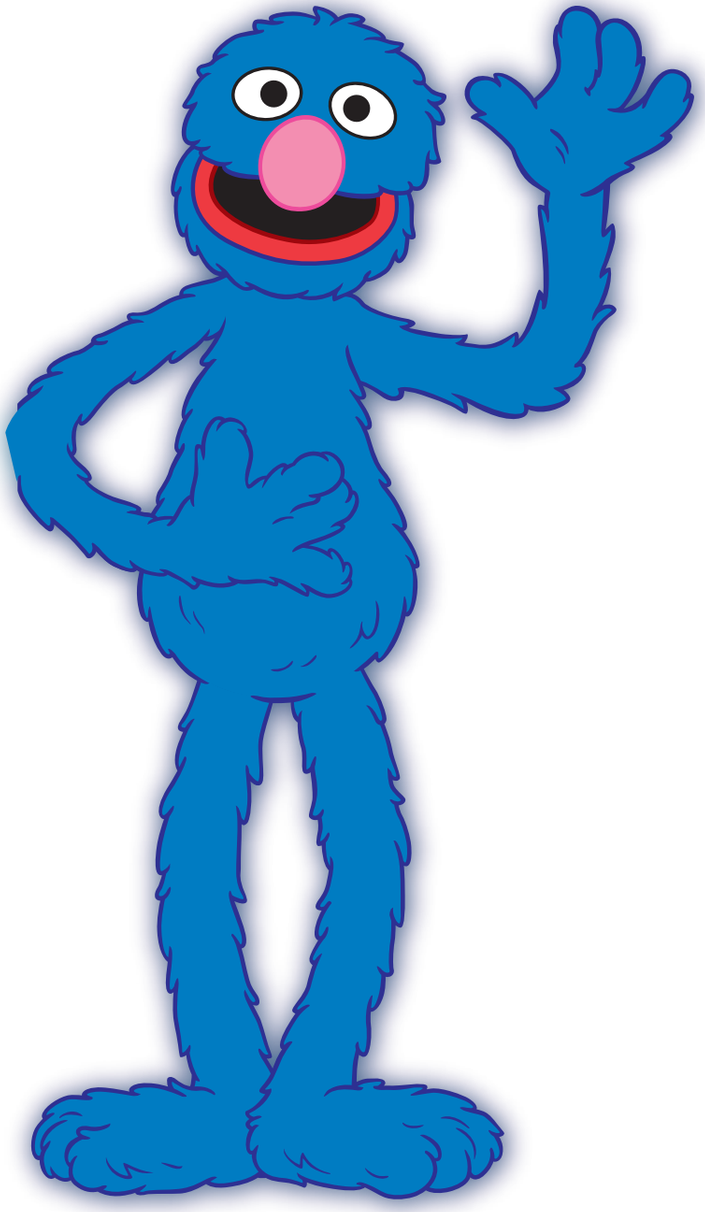
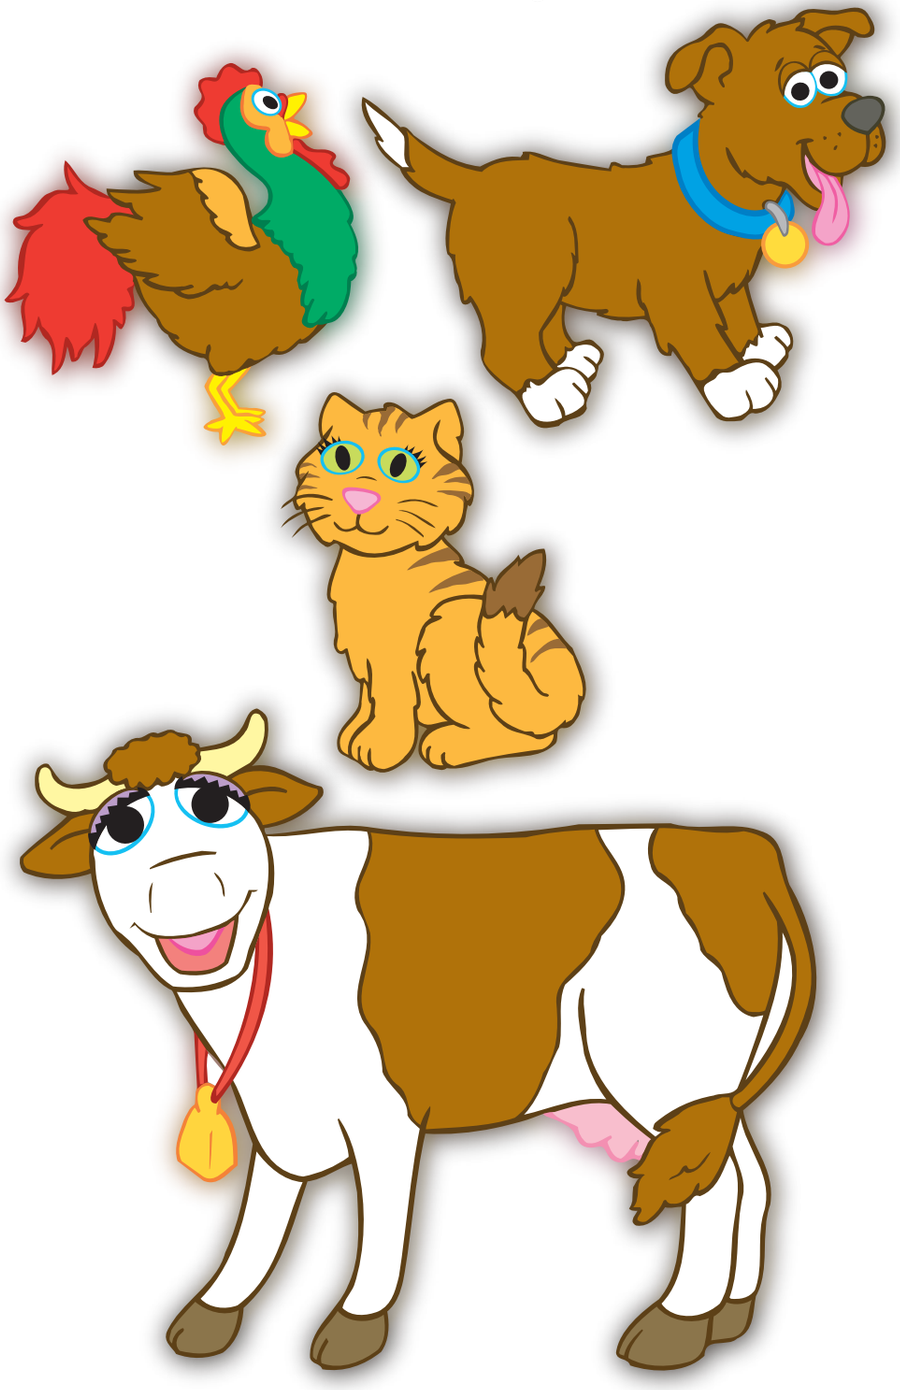
Grover's Guessing Game About ANIMALS

I, Grover, am thinking of a cute and adorable animal that is furry and has whiskers. It purrs when it is happy.



Can you guess which animal Grover is thinking about?



Did you guess a kitty cat? You are so smart! Now I am thinking about another animal. This animal moves slowly and has a hard shell.

Did you guess a turtle? Very good! The next animal is furry and cute and adorable. It has long ears and hippity-hops on its strong legs.

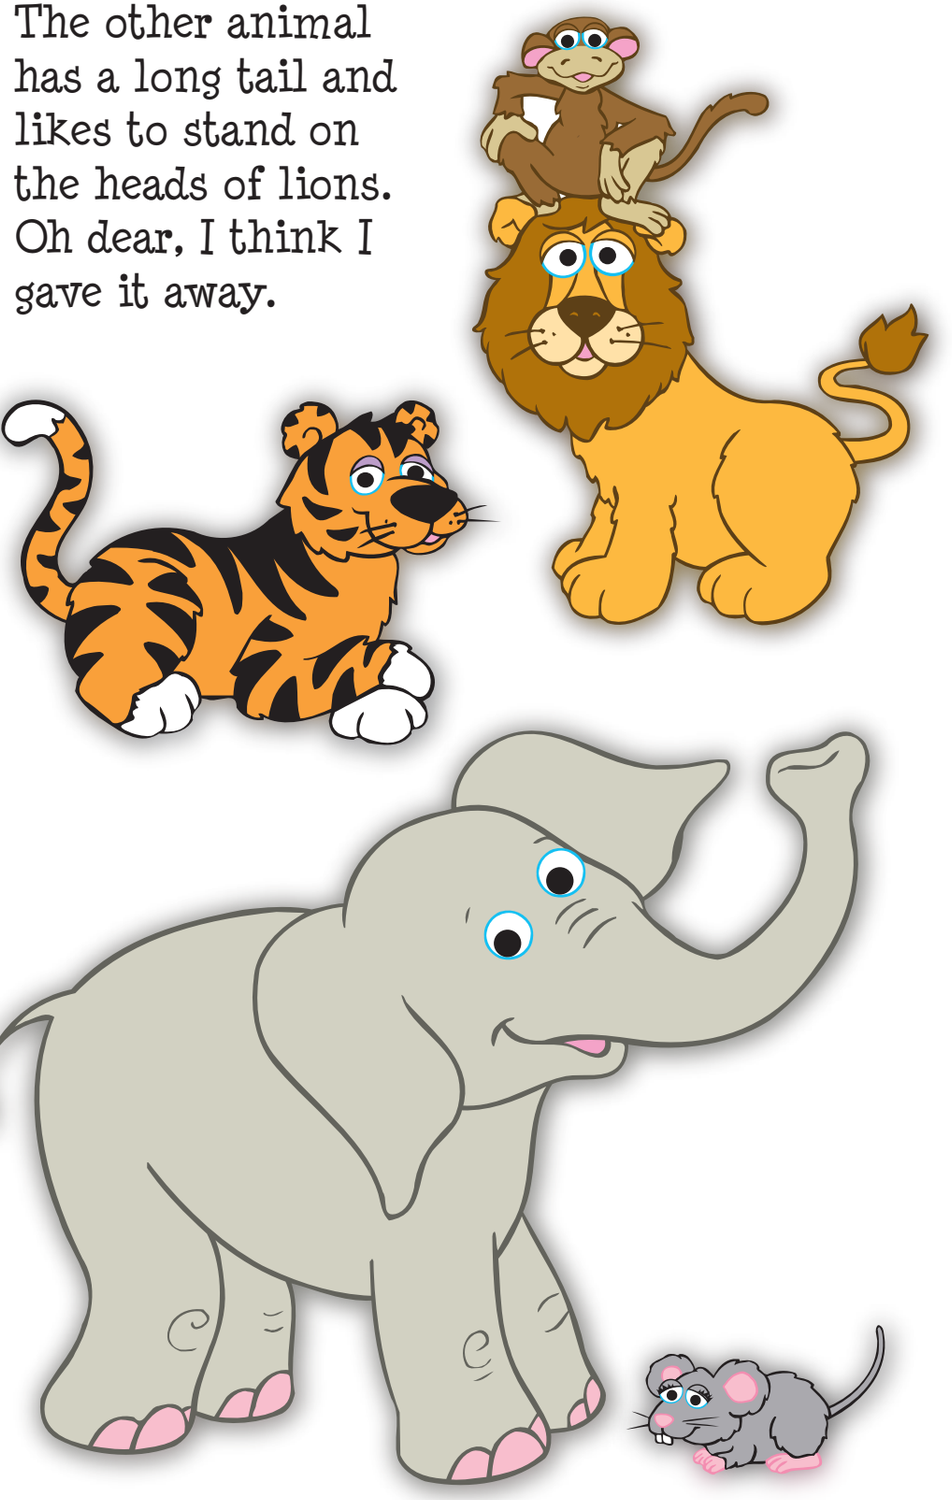
Did you guess a bunny rabbit?
OK, try this one: I, Grover, am now thinking about TWO animals. One animal has a furry brown mane and sharp teeth. He is sometimes called the King of the Jungle.

The other animal has a long tail and likes to stand on the heads of lions. Oh dear, I think I gave it away.



Did you guess a lion with a monkey on its head? I am very impressed!

Which animal is your favorite?
